Positive Care Ireland: Relief Social Care Workers

Positive Care Ireland provides residential services for young people at risk (aged 12 - 18) - most of whom are looked after within the care system.

These young people experience learning difficulties and/or challenging behavior. We are now looking for Relief Social Care Workers.

Title: Residential Tutor
Reporting to: Unit Manager
Location: Wicklow / Wexford / Cork
Type: Relief
Salary: Relief Rate

Person Spec:

As social care worker you will possess a degree in Psychology, Sociology, Social Work, Social care, Applied Social Studies, Youthwork, Nursing, Teaching or equivalent. You will have a minimum of 6 months post-qualifying experience in working with young people (over 12 years) in a residential setting with challenging behavior. You will also possess a full clean driving license.

Duties:

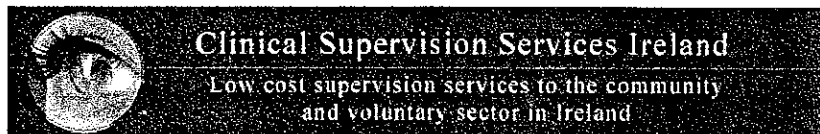

- The Social Care Worker will act as the support worker to young people referred to the house.
- He/she will contribute to an assessment of needs, thereafter implementing aspects of placement, behavioral support, and individual educational plans that will help meet assessed needs.
- He /she will undertake appropriate actions to connect the young person with local resources.
- He/she will network with local providers and liaise closely with parents / carers, and referral agencies.
- This post will involve evening, weekend and residential working arrangements.

Application Forms and Job Specifications for all of the above positions can be obtained from our website: www.positivecare.ie requested by email at rachel.wood@positivecare.ie

Please note that we request CV's to be accompanied by a completed application form.
